

Nimai's Astrological predictions

The Supreme Lord, even before his appearance induced the chanting of the Holyname throughout Navadvipa. Thousands of people including false ascetics were going to the Ganges on the night of the lunar eclipse, incessantly chanting the Holynames of the Lord.

Jagannath Mishra and Sachi Devi glanced at the child's beautiful face. Their hearts overflowed with limitless joy. All the ladies ululated in jubilation.

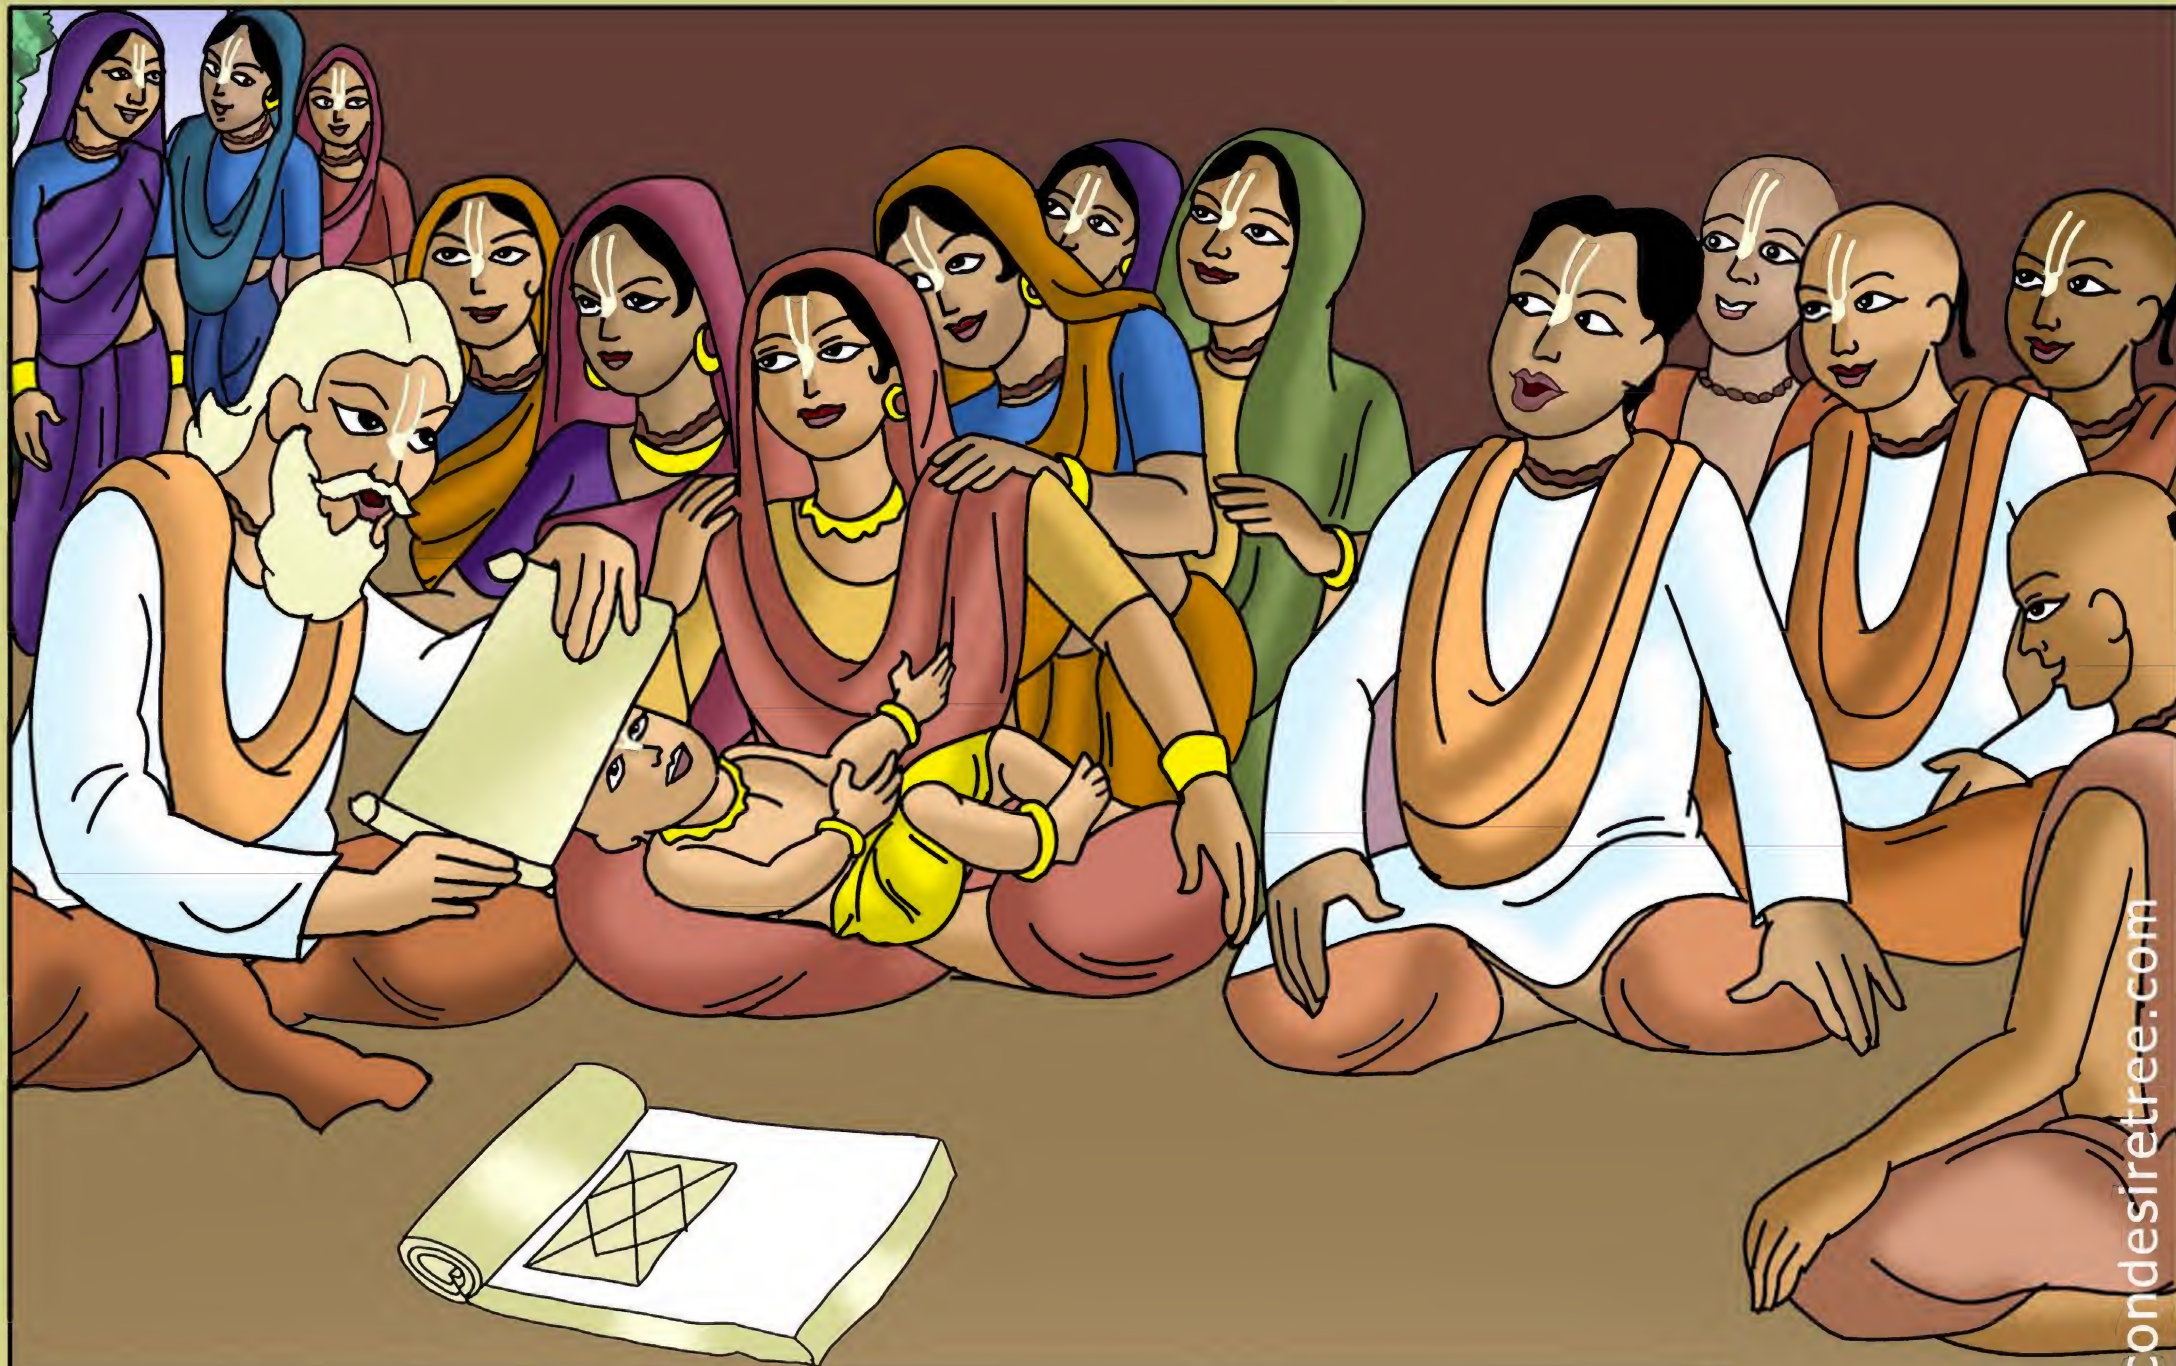

Sachimata's father, Sri Nilamber Chakravarthy found esoteric signs in every house of the child's astrological chart.

GOLOKA

He saw divine symbols on the child's body and lotus feet. It was a much accepted prophecy that someday a King will be born as a Brahmin's son in Bengal. He thought, only the future will reveal who this child is.

In the presence of all, Sri Nilamber Chakravarty an expert astrologer began to explain the meaning of different signs in the Lords astrological chart.

As Sri Nilamber Chakravathy delved deeper into the child's astrological chart, the more difficult he found to describe Lord's position.

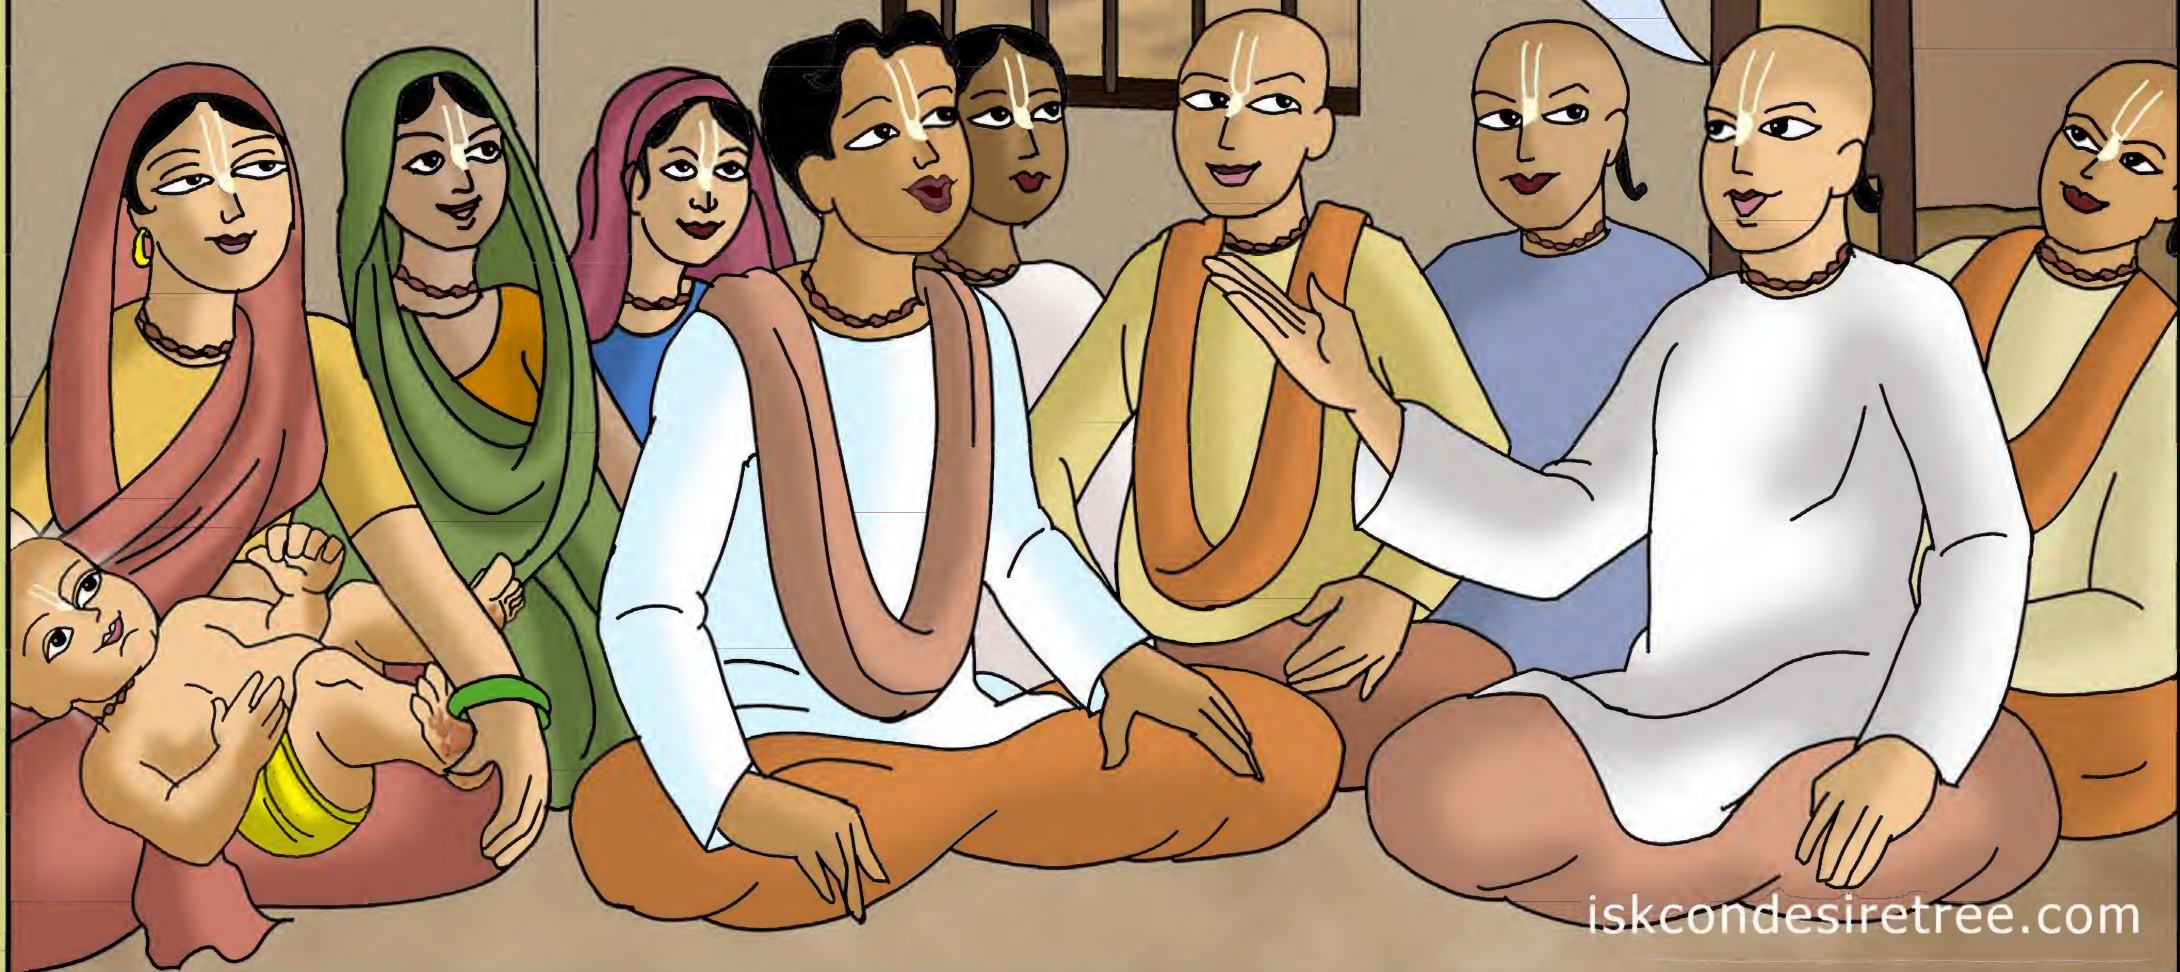

The child will conquer Brihaspati (the symbol of learning and education) and be a great scholar.

Present among the guests was a great saint in the guise of a Brahmana who also predicted Lord's future.

This Child will initiate a wonderful preaching movement to deliver the whole world.

He is the Supreme Lord Narayana Himself who has incarnated to establish religious principles. I feel greatly fortunate.

As the whole universe rests upon him, his name will be Vishvambhar. He will also be called Navadvipa Chandra (the moon of navadvipa).

They paid obeisances to each other with tears of joy.

The mother of demigods Aditi and her companions, came in the guise of Brahmin women to take darshan of Vishvambhar. Sachimata was astounded by the beautiful looks of these exalted guests.

Long life to you dear child,
may you live forever in this material world through your names and pastimes.

Neither the Vedas nor Anantashesha can fully describe the waves of jubilation that drowned Shri Jagannath Mishra's house. Musicians played wonderful instruments. Navadvipa was filled with the chanting of the Holynames.

Lord Chaitanya appeared on the full moon night during the month of Phalgun and Lord Nityananda appeared on the thirteenth day of the period of the waxing moon during the month of Magha (Jan-Feb). Both these days are transcendental and all auspicious.

!!! Gauranga Mahaprabhu Ki Jay !!!

Script : Madanmanjari devi dasi.

Graphics : Sanjay Ghosh, Umesh Modak & Ranjana Sawant.

Produced by: iskcondesiretree.net